ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE.
We are authorized to announce
GRANT HOLLIDAY

as a candidate for Representative from the 93d Legislative District, composed of the counties of Breathitt, Lee and Magoffin, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR ASSESSOR.
We are authorized to announce

as a candidate for Assessor of Breathitt county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We call your attention to the improved appearance of our paper, which is the only all-home print paper ever published in this county. We have no patent in side, or outside, either, so if you want to read all the local news you must read all four pages.

We have a No. 1 printer and with our improved cylinder press and with our former experience, we are able to give you a better paper than heretofore, and it is our intention to make the News a welcome weekly visitor all over this mountain section. We already have a larger circulation than ever enjoyed by any other paper in this section, but we want to still increase our list. If you are not already a subscriber, we invite you to jump into the band wagon and go with us through 1905 and we will try to be so interesting and entertaining that you will stay with us forever.

A great uproar is being made because there are a million children in the United States earning their own living. It strikes us that it is vastly creditable to the children, however discreditable to their natural protectors, and that nobody has any business to object to it except benevolent and public-spirited persons who are willing to adopt the children and send them to school where they should be. For legislatures to pass laws prohibiting those who are orphaned from working in factories or anywhere else, in order to support themselves, is cruel and inhuman.

Correspondence.

TROUBLESOME.

Elliot Noble and Bala Noble, of South Quickand, came to this place last Sunday and eloped with Mrs. Flora Sizemore, wife of Colson Sizemore, and who were recently married, and Susan Stacy to parts unknown to the writer. I would say to them and to the public, remember the glorious benediction laid down in the Bible—"What God hath joined together let no man put asunder," leaving Colson Sizemore and Henry Stacy to mourn the loss of their companions.

ROOSEVELT.

A WONDERFUL DEER HUNT.

James Roberts, Obediah Roberts and R. O. Davis have just returned from the State of Wisconsin, where they have been on a hunting tour which lasted thirty-one days. Their license cost them $25, which permitted them to kill and ship two deer from the State. They arrived in Jackson on November 26th with two large deer and a number of skins and horns. On November 26th, Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts gave a deer feast to more than thirty-five of their friends. The party enjoyed their hunt very much. James Roberts, who is 55 years old, killed two deer, one wolf, a lot of birds and small game. He was the last man to kill a deer in Breathitt county, on the Jack Wilson farm on Frozen, about twenty-five years ago.

Ransom Roberts, wife and daughter from North Grandon, Wisconsin, were at the feast and will visit friends and relatives till the first of March, when they will return to Pine River, Wis.

E. Roberts, of Perry county, was also at the feast and was especially proud of the record his father had made on his first hunting trip in the northwest. He says he will try his luck next year.

ROUSSEAU.

Riley Row is on the sick list.

The Rousseau Sunday school is improving.

L. C. and G. B. Rose have sold all their timber on Meadow Creek for $1 per acre, and will measure it in a short time. It will probably bring thirty or forty thousand dollars.

Mrs. Lydia Creech, of Athol, was quietly married to Jack Strong, of Whick, Breathitt county, last Saturday. The bride is a daughter of Judge Strong and the widow of William Creech, who died four years ago. We extend to them our best wishes.

The Republican primary was held Saturday, the 3d, to nominate men for county offices, in which Judge Brewer was nominated for county judge, Harvey Rice for sheriff, John Baker for jailer, William Wilson for assessor, Ed Flanery for county clerk, W. B. Bullock for county attorney, Taylor Gabbard for representative. Some one broke into the office of W. B. Bullock and stole the ballots, therefore the voters of the Booneville precinct did not get to vote.

Beckwith's Confession.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 6.—President Beckwith and Cashier Spear plead not guilty when arraigned before United States Commissioner Stark, and both were bound over in the sum of $10,000 each, bail being furnished. In the district attorney's office Beckwith made a confession regarding Mrs. Chadwick's transactions with the Oberlin bank. He said Cashier Spear and himself indorsed three notes for Mrs. Chadwick, two $500.00 notes and one for $250.00. These notes, Mr. Beckwith said, bore the name of Andrew Carnegie, and he believed the signatures genuine. Receiver Nathan Loser has taken charge of the property of Mrs. Chadwick, who is at the Holland House, New York.

Long Drought Broken.

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 5.—Special dispatches from all sections of West Virginia state that the drought which has prevailed since August has been ended by the coming of a light rain, which is likely to turn to snow. The damage to the winter wheat crop, it is believed, will be enormous, the rain having come too late. Pastures also will have to be resown in the West Virginia blue grass region. The rain thus far is not sufficient to give relief unless it continues several days, much of the smaller water courses being dried up.

Four Killed in a Wreck.

Columbus, Ind., Dec. 5.—While running 50 miles an hour, northbound passenger train No. 27 on the Pennsylvania road ran into a construction train about two miles north of this city, instantly killing three men, fatally injuring at least one other, and inflicting slight injuries upon a score of passengers. The dead: Samuel Crow, Jeffersonville, passenger engineer; Herman C. Jones, Columbus, Ind., brakeman; E. W. Achenbaugh, Indianapolis, fireman, cremated; Calvin Prather fireman.

Discovered Great Salt Lake.

Kansas City, Dec. 5.—The bones of Jim Bridger, famous scout and discoverer of Great Salt Lake, will be brought from an obscure grave on a farm ten miles south of this city for final burial in a local cemetery. A granite monument seven feet high will be unveiled next Sunday. Mrs. Mary Leight, Bridger's granddaughter, will unveil the monument. A life-sized bust of the old frontiersman and an inscription of his greatest deeds will be sculptured upon the shaft.

Brutal Murder.

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 5.—At Stonediff, two miles above Thurmond, Sam Miller and an accomplice murdered George Dane by beating out his brains with an iron bar. The two men then boarded a passing freight train and attempted to escape. Miller's accomplice was arrested and taken to jail at Minton, but Miller is still at large. It is said the motive was robbery, Dane having a small sum which the guilty pair coveted.

Stonewall Jackson's Grandson. Washington, Dec. 2.—To Congressman Livingston of Georgia, and to Colonel J. C. Woodward, president of the Georgia Military academy, President Roosevelt indicated his intention to appoint Stonewall Jackson Christian, a grandson of General Stonewall Jackson, the Confederate chieftain, as a cadet to the West Point Military academy. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, widow of the general, is a resident of Charlotte, N. C.

Trackless Trolley Line.

Berlin, Dec. 6.—The first trackless trolley street railway has begun operation in Berlin, and is apparently a success. The vehicles resemble electric omnibuses, but derive their power from an overhead trolley. They have a speed of 10 miles an hour. They are equipped with a special type of wheels to prevent stoppages by snow.

HOME BURNED.

Mother and Two of Her Children the Victims of Fire.

Pittsburg, Dec. 5.—Mrs. Rock Perry and two of her children were burned to death in their home. Rock Perry, the husband, and his son Henry and daughter Annie Perry, were forced to stand in the street and see the tragedy. The dead: Mrs. Rock Perry, 35; Harner Perry, 3; Charles Perry, 6. The fire is thought to have been caused by a spark from a coal stove setting fire to the carpet which Mrs. Perry was cleaning with gasoline. The first thing known about the fire was when flames were seen issuing from the front door of the house. Neighbors who watched the fire from its start said that never a sound or a moan issued from the house on fire.

Tyner's Official Career.

Washington, Dec. 6.—General James N. Tyner, 78, who died here after protracted illness caused by paralysis, was born in Indiana, and was postmaster general during President Grant's administration. His last official duty was as assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, from which office he was removed last year and subsequently indicted, together with Harrison J. Barrett, a nephew of his son-in-law, on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the use of mails by certain alleged "get-rich-quick" concerns. On this charge he was acquitted by a jury in May. Mr. Tyner was a member of congress from 1869 to 1875 and postmaster general from 1875 to 1882. He was assistant attorney general to the postoffice department from 1889 to 1893.

Minister's Family Poisoned.

London, Dec. 6.—A dispatch to a news agency from Lahore, Punjab district of British India, says that the wife and children of Dr. Benjamin, an American Episcopal missionary, have been poisoned with arsenic. A native Christian schoolmaster, who was recently repudiated by Dr. Benjamin, is charged with the crime.

In California.

Peccolus Fact and Superstition.

In Painswick churchyard (between Stroud and Gloucester), in Gloucestershire, England, there are ninety-nine row trees. Although the hundredth has been planted many times, it is a peculiar fact that it always dies. A local superstition says that "when the hundredth tree lives after it has been planted the world will come to an end."

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala., "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it as it is an invaluable household remedy and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All the salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by M. S. A Notable Baptism.

Do modern records contain anything to equal the following entry in the parish register of Old Whittington, Derbyshire: "Thomas Ashton, son of Mr. Arthur and Mrs. Jane Bulkeley, was baptized July 1, 1744. Godfathers: Edward Downs, esq., great-great-great-uncle; Dr. Charles Ashton, great-great-great-uncle; Joseph Ashton, gent., great-great-great-uncle. Godmothers: Mrs. Wood, great-great-great-aunt; Mrs. Wainwright, great-great-grandmother; Mrs. Green, great-grandmother. Registered at the request of Joseph Ashton of London, gent., who nominated the godfathers and godmothers, believing they are not to be paralleled in England."

Hornets as Fly Killers.

Hornets, or "white faced wasps," have no evil traits or obnoxious features. It is true that they will sometimes sting, but this is only when they are attacked in their own homes or think their young are in danger. The great value of these insects is that they live entirely upon insects, mostly flies, and, in fact, when they are near dwellings their food is generally the common housefly. They are nature's greatest factors in reducing this serious pest. It is well known that flies carry disease germs, such as those of typhoid fever, and it can thus be seen that hornets have a decidedly sanitary effect as a result of their desirable insectivorous habits.—Field and Stream.

Love or Sport?

The young schoolgirl or student may possibly seem overcautious about hockey, but we all know perfectly well that not so long ago young men and love affairs were the prevailing subjects of the young girl's thoughts. No one surely will say that it is not an improvement to have healthy play instead of sickly sentiment.—London Church Times.
